

National Supply Chain Assessment 2.0 Decision Tree

A snapshot NSCA uses a smaller, purposive sample which is not nationally representative. A full scale NSCA requires a large, random sample, but results accurately illustrate challenges in a country within certain confidence limits. A targeted NSCA is either one level of the system, one site, or one technical module that will provide decision-makers with information about a certain systemic challenge